

Hiscox London Market Wood / Coal Burning Stove Questionnaire

Policy #:	Insured:
Type of project?	Free Standing	Fireplace Insert	Furnace Add-on
Manufacturer:
Construction:	Sheet metal	Cast iron	Other:
Use:	Primary heat source	Secondary heat source
Fuel:	Wood	Coal pellet	Other:
Installation:	Contractor insured	Other:	Installation date:
Inspected by:	Fire department city inspector	None
Fire protection in room:	Smoke alarm	Fire extinguisher	Heat sensor fire alarm

STOVE INSTALLATION

Is there a damper on the stove or stovepipe?	Yes	No	Is front of unit to end of floor protection at least 18"?	Yes	No
Is there protective material on the walls?	Yes	No	Is side of unit to end of floor protection at least 12"?	Yes	No
If yes to above, is there a 1" air gap between shield & wall material?	Yes	No	Is stove at least the following distances from all walls, furniture, curtains, wood fuel and other combustible materials:
Is there protective material under the unit?	Yes	No	36" if no heat shield,	Yes	No
If yes, what is the material?			18" with heat shield and 1" air gap	Yes	No
Is top of pipe to ceiling distance at least 18"?	Yes	No
Is bottom of unit to floor at least 4" above a noncombustible slab, or 18" above the floor?	Yes	No

CHIMNEY/VENTING

How is the Stove vented?	Stovepipe	Chimney	Other
If vented with a stovepipe does it pass through a concealed space, floor or attic?	Yes	No
If vented by chimney, what is it made of?	Brick	Stone	Cement Block	Metal Triple Wall
When was the chimney last cleaned?	By Whom?

FOR MASONRY CHIMNEYS:

Clay liner?	Yes	No	Free of cracks and crumbling?	Yes	No
Built from the ground up?	Yes	No	Separate liners/flues or chimneys for other heating appliances?	Yes	No

Please attach a picture of the stove/heating device, comment on all 'NO' answers and add any additional comments below:
